28th Annual National Night Out a Success

Local citizens gathered at the Hillsboro City Park on August 2nd, participating in the 28th annual crime and drug prevention event. National Night Out, which is sponsored by the National Association of Town Watch (NATW) involves over 11,000 communities from all 50 states, U.S. territories, Canadian cities and military bases all over the world. It is co-sponsored locally by the Hillsboro Police Department.

Library Summer Programs Enjoyed by Record Crowds

More than 200 area children participated in the Hillsboro City Library's 2011 Summer Reading Program "Dig Up a Good Book." Children in grades 1-5 were encouraged to read library books at their levels to earn incentive prizes. Crowds averaging over 90 children and adults attended weekly programs by special guests. An average of 75 preschool age children and adults enjoyed weekly storytimes, guest readers and take-home crafts.

Many thanks to all the guest presenters and teen volunteers who helped make the 2011 Summer Reading Program a success!
